New Appointments:

October 2015

Danielle Anderson, MD – Assistant Professor. Dr. Anderson has been an Attending Psychiatrist at Mercy Hospital, and an Attending for the Geriatric Psychiatry Clinic at the University of Chicago and South Shore Senior Center since 2008. Dr. Anderson will begin work as an Attending Psychiatrist at the Galter 13 Inpatient Psychiatry Unit, and direct the NMH Stone Mental Health Center's Older Adult Program. She will also work with Dr. Michael Schrift, Director of the Division of Geriatric Psychiatry and Neuropsychiatry, to re-design didactic seminars and clinical rotations in geriatric psychiatry for residents and fellows.

Vijay Mittal, PhD – Secondary, Assistant Professor. In Dr. Mittal's primary appointment with the Department of Psychology in the Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences, he researches the development of biomarkers of early forms of mental illness. Multiple faculty members will collaborate with Dr. Mittal and will work on submitting interdisciplinary grant applications. Dr. Mittal will also co-mentor trainees in the department in his laboratory's experimental techniques.

November 2015

Claire Coyne, PhD – Assistant Professor with Lurie Children's Hospital. Dr. Coyne will be involved in the CLMHSP program, assessing the effectiveness of school-based interventions for children exposed to trauma. She will contribute to study design, analysis, and presentations of published findings from these evaluations. Dr. Coyne will also participate in teaching efforts with a wide variety of students and trainees at Lurie Children's Hospital.

James Brian Conant, PsyD – Adjunct Instructor, Dr. Conant is the current Program Director at the Isaac Ray Center, Cook County Juvenile Temporary Detention Center. He will work with faculty in the department to develop education opportunities for the psychology and psychiatry trainees.
