General Psychiatrist

Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences
Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine

The Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences is seeking a full-time psychiatrist to join the faculty of a strong, multidisciplinary program in a medical center academic department. The candidate will join a rich, collaborative environment with other clinicians and scientists in the Feinberg School of Medicine and throughout the University. We are expanding our clinical and teaching services in the areas of inpatient care, outpatient care, and consultation-liaison psychiatry and integrated medicine. This position will be a full-time continuing appointment with the rank of Instructor or Assistant Professor in the non-tenure Clinician-Educator track and will be responsible for leading an inpatient team in our inpatient unit.

The selected candidate will have a strong clinical background with experience in the diagnosis and treatment of a variety of mental disorders. The selected candidate will also have board certification in general psychiatry.

The start date is negotiable and the position will remain open until filled.

When applying, please upload a CV and cover letter describing your interest and alignment with the position. Also upload this completed list of references form to suggest the names of individuals who could write letters of reference on your behalf.
